

Our reputation for premium last mile connectivity began with our Metro Ethernet Wireless Network. We were one of the first market entrants to own an independent network, allowing us to be in full control of uptime and quality of service.

Connect With Us

We are a National Telecommunications Provider that has been revolutionising business connectivity for over a decade. We build, maintain and manage our private Fibre Optic and Wireless Last Mile Network which spans across South Africa. Complete control combined with Quality of Service (QoS) guarantees operational uptime and a Network to optimally service the broad Business Market.

Revolutionise Your Business With Wireless Connectivity

Our Wireless offering is still a favourite for businesses located in areas without Fibre or where rapid connectivity is required. We proudly hold three licences to operate our wireless network, one of which grants us permission to use a highly sought after, lower frequency band.
